

YEAR 3

Leisure and entertainment †

To be able to discuss what people do today and in the past for leisure and entertainment.
To be able to study an ancient civilisation and place them on a time line
To be able to look at artefacts to understand what a civilisation was like.
To be able to research and compare the ancient Olympics to modern day Olympics
To be able to perform a short sequence about a Greek myth
To be able to compare ancient theatre and modern day.
To be able to use dates to relate to the passing of time.
To identify reasons for and results of people's actions.
To begin to use a library and the internet for research.

Ancient Egypt

To be able to place key events on a timeline
To be able to ask questions about an ancient Egyptian artefact
To understand what was important to people in Ancient Egypt
To retell the key steps of the mummification process
To understand the importance of using historical sources to uncover facts
To read and understand how hieroglyphics were used
To be able to research about different gods
To be able to identify characteristics of different gods
To be able to compare life in Ancient Egypt to modern day
To be able to select and record information