

YEAR 4

The Tudors

- To develop and extend the concept of chronology.
- To understand the key events leading to Tudor reign in England.
- To accurately order the Tudor Monarchs.
- To select and record information about Henry VIII.
- To sort evidence according to whether it is primary or secondary evidence.
- To study significant individuals in the Tudor period.

- To find out about people from a range of sources.
- To compare the lives of rich and poor Tudors.
- To be able to place events from the Spanish Armada on a timeline.
- To be able to analyse the keys events of The Spanish Armada.
- To study significant events and change throughout the reign of Queen Elizabeth I

The History of Communication

- To produce a communication mind map.
- To sort forms of communication using a chosen criteria.
- To place methods of communication on a timeline.
- To place developments in the telephone on a timeline.
- To study the development of the telephone through time.
- To use the internet for research and organise the information discovered.
- To research and present a report on a form of communication.
- To understand the significance of Alan Turing.